

Happy Sunday!

I wanted update you on some things in regard to Prayer Ministry and what the Lord has been doing in my heart for it. To be honest, in the last few months, I have been struggling with what my role should be with Prayer Ministry and was feeling very overwhelmed by it. Through the SHAPE series at church, encouraging conversations within my life group, and Tim's message last Sunday, the Lord has REALLY made it clear to me that He wants me to truly invest where he has me, including with Prayer Ministry. That being said, He has also been helping guide me to new ideas for how to improve our weekly prayer request communication, and the planning of several upcoming events.

One of the things that needs to be updated is the list of people on our current prayer chain. I have had several people approach me at church about wanting to be included in the team of people actively praying for our church body and its members, which is awesome and gets me excited! If you are interested in being part of the prayer team, please contact me at hanna.lynn.wilson@gmail.com. These would be people who are consistently dedicated to actively praying for the needs of our church, its members, and our missionary partners every week. These prayer requests will continue to be communicated via email. We are also looking for ways to communicate larger prayer needs to the whole congregation.

Please also put these additional upcoming dates on your calendar because we would LOVE to have you join us!

- April 15: prayer walk downtown in partnership with the Bridgeway City Church of Des Moines that Mark Doss and the Bohlen's have been sharing about at church
- late May: prayer walk in Adel

It is such a joy to serve with you in prayer over our church!

Hanna Wilson

Happy Sunday!

I wanted update you on some things in regard to Prayer Ministry and what the Lord has been doing in my heart for it. To be honest, in the last few months, I have been struggling with what my role should be with Prayer Ministry and was feeling very overwhelmed by it. Through the SHAPE series at church, encouraging conversations within my life group, and Tim's message last Sunday, the Lord has REALLY made it clear to me that He wants me to truly invest where he has me, including with Prayer Ministry. That being said, He has also been helping guide me to new ideas for how to improve our weekly prayer request communication, and the planning of several upcoming events.

One of the things that needs to be updated is the list of people on our current prayer chain. I have had several people approach me at church about wanting to be included in the team of people actively praying for our church body and its members, which is awesome and gets me excited! If you are interested in being part of the prayer team, please contact me at hanna.lynn.wilson@gmail.com. These would be people who are consistently dedicated to actively praying for the needs of our church, its members, and our missionary partners every week. These prayer requests will continue to be communicated via email. We are also looking for ways to communicate larger prayer needs to the whole congregation.

Please also put these additional upcoming dates on your calendar because we would LOVE to have you join us!

- April 15: prayer walk downtown in partnership with the Bridgeway City Church of Des Moines that Mark Doss and the Bohlen's have been sharing about at church
- late May: prayer walk in Adel

It is such a joy to serve with you in prayer over our church!

Hanna Wilson

Happy Sunday!

I wanted update you on some things in regard to Prayer Ministry and what the Lord has been doing in my heart for it. To be honest, in the last few months, I have been struggling with what my role should be with Prayer Ministry and was feeling very overwhelmed by it. Through the SHAPE series at church, encouraging conversations within my life group, and Tim's message last Sunday, the Lord has REALLY made it clear to me that He wants me to truly invest where he has me, including with Prayer Ministry. That being said, He has also been helping guide me to new ideas for how to improve our weekly prayer request communication, and the planning of several upcoming events.

One of the things that needs to be updated is the list of people on our current prayer chain. I have had several people approach me at church about wanting to be included in the team of people actively praying for our church body and its members, which is awesome and gets me excited! If you are interested in being part of the prayer team, please contact me at hanna.lynn.wilson@gmail.com. These would be people who are consistently dedicated to actively praying for the needs of our church, its members, and our missionary partners every week. These prayer requests will continue to be communicated via email. We are also looking for ways to communicate larger prayer needs to the whole congregation.

Please also put these additional upcoming dates on your calendar because we would LOVE to have you join us!

- April 15: prayer walk downtown in partnership with the Bridgeway City Church of Des Moines that Mark Doss and the Bohlen's have been sharing about at church
- late May: prayer walk in Adel

It is such a joy to serve with you in prayer over our church!

Hanna Wilson